HHS'71 Class/Sports Update

Class News

- Dave Mudrinich's "Retrospective" exhibition includes 30 pieces of his work and is currently on display on Arkansas Tech University's campus* until the 16th of this month. Click here to view the included works, some of which dates back 40 years. Also you can click here to view a 15 minute talk that Dave gave regarding his Retrospective.

If you're interested in owning a piece of HHS'71 art Dave is one of our many talented '71 artists that can help out in that regard. Some of the items in the Exhibit are for sale. Questions/comments can be directed to Dave at dmudrinich98@outlook.com.

* Dave recently retired from the Department of Art at Arkansas Tech University (Russellville, AR) where he was a professor of drawing and painting. He has displayed his work in numerous individual and group exhibitions across the United States. He is the recipient of several awards and accolades, including an Honorable Mention at the Fourteenth Annual Exhibition of the Lyndon House Art Center in Athens, and the Juror's Merit Award at the LaGrange National XVII. David is recognized for his expansive landscapes and more intimate locations. His works are part of major private and corporate collections around Arkansas, throughout the South as well as some fellow Hornets. ATU's Board of Trustees conferred Professor Emeritus status upon Dave earlier this year. Congratulations Dave!
